

FOUR INJURED IN BLAST AT ASPERS PLANT

Four men were injured Thursday afternoon at 2:50 o'clock when a pasteurizer exploded in the Adams Apple plant at Aspers.

The men, all of whom suffered second degree burns from the boiling liquid in the mechanism and cuts from flying particles of glass of which the main portion of the pasteurizer was made, were John Sauter, The Narrows; Ralph "Dutch" Brandt, Gardners; Donald Guldien, Gettysburg R. D.; and Sherman Roe, Gettysburg.

All were treated by Dr. P. J. McGlynn who was summoned immediately from Biglerville.

Restore Operations

About 65 gallons of boiling liquid and thousands of particles of glass showered through the main canning plant when the machine blew up. Six other machines nearby suffered some damage from the explosion.

E. L. Mann, of the Adams Apple corporation, said today that 15 employees of the plant worked on through the night to 4:30 o'clock this morning and then began work at 7 o'clock in order to get the plant back into operation. By utilizing what they could of the pasteurizer and using other machines the plant was able to start work about 9 o'clock this morning. Mann said that otherwise a week long shut down would have faced the concern. He paid high tribute to the "loyalty and devotion" of the men who performed the job.

Representatives of the company manufacturing the pasteurizer were at the plant today conducting an investigation to determine the cause of the explosion. The representatives said it was the first time in the manufacturer's knowledge that such a machine exploded.

CATTLE TRUCK UPSETS ON CAR; WOMEN INJURED

Mrs. Walter C. Simpson, 36, and her daughter, Gloria, 18, of near Taneytown, are patients at the Warner hospital as the result of an auto-truck accident this morning at 7:45 o'clock eight miles east of Taneytown on the Taneytown-Westminster road. Both are suffering multiple lacerations and bruises over the body.

Trooper Glenn B. Markle, of the Maryland state police, said that Wilmer Baker, 34, Emmitsburg R. 2, was operating a tractor-trailer loaded with about a dozen cattle west on the road and applied the brakes on descending the slippery hill at Meadow Brook church. The trailer skidded and crashed head-on into the 1937 Oldsmobile being driven east on the highway by Mrs. Simpson.

The car was demolished and the tractor was badly damaged. The cattle were thrown to the highway and required about an hour before they were rounded up. The cattle apparently escaped injury.

Mrs. Simpson and her daughter were brought to the Warner hospital in the Westminster ambulance.

Trooper Markle stated he expects to file charges as a result of the crash.

Here And There

News Collected At Random

A. J. N. Reynolds, of Marlboro House, St. Albans, Hertfordshire, England, writes that "I have been trying for years to obtain some picture postcards of the field of Gettysburg and of the equestrian statue to my ancestor General John H. Reynolds . . . but I have failed in spite of at least a dozen letters to all and sundry . . .

"I will send you a dollar bill as I have just one by me and this will overcome the currency difficulty."

Several local mothers have appealed to this column to urge school and police authorities to provide some sort of protection at street crossings for school youngsters en route to school in the morning.

"Several of the dangerous crossings are well patrolled when school closes at noon and in the afternoon, but there does not seem to be any provision for the children's protection when they go to school in the morning. It seems to me that some arrangements could be made for such protection from about 8:30 a. m. or so, until the opening of school. If such arrangements could be

Court Voids Conviction Of Woman In Hesse Gems' Theft

Charleson, W. Va., Sept. 5 (P)—Former WAC Captain Kathleen Nash Durand, 43, was one step nearer freedom today with a court decision voiding her court-martial conviction in the Hesse crown jewel theft.

U. S. District Judge Ben Moore ruled yesterday that Mrs. Durand was a civilian at the time of her arrest and that an army court-martial "lacked jurisdiction" because Mrs. Durand was "an officer on inactive duty."

Testimony at her habeas corpus hearing July 14 said Mrs. Durand went on terminal leave March 9, 1946; received a War Department telegram, recalling her to active duty, on May 29, one day before her terminal leave expired May 30, and was arrested by military police June 3, 1946.

Her attorney, Hugh Ohear, argued that "the army has the power to recall officers from an inactive status but that power may not be used to recall an officer for a court martial."

Judge Moore said "petitioner's terminal leave orders were never effectively revoked and that by their self-executing provisions she was finally and formally separated from the service on May 30, 1946."

PAUL M. SETTLE IS SELECTED AS CANDIDATE

Paul M. Settle, Gettysburg R. 3, trucker and farmer, has been selected by the Cumberland township Citizens' committee as their candidate for a sticker campaign for the post of school director in the township. Carroll Redding, chairman of the citizens' group, announced today.

The decision to enter a candidate in the primaries Tuesday was made after the committee found there was no candidate for the vacancy to be caused by the expiration of the term of Township Board Member Edward Eiker.

Planning to place members with stickers at the election house all day Tuesday, the committee is hoping to make Mr. Settle's candidacy a test of the opinion of township voters on a combination of the Cumberland and Gettysburg school districts, Redding said.

Those who are in favor of joining the two systems and sending the Cumberland youngsters to the Gettysburg schools are to be asked to place the sticker with Mr. Settle's name on the primary ballots, both Republican and Democratic. Those opposed to having the two systems joined are asked to either cast their vote for some other person or leave the space blank in order that a fair test of the opinion of the township may be gained.

STRATEMEYER ASKS STRONG US AIR FORCE

Cleveland, Sept. 5 (AP)—The commanding general of the U. S. Air Defense Command called today for a regular air force—"ready for battle"—of 10,000 modern aircraft and 400,000 trained men.

A standing air corps of that size is necessary, said Lt. Gen. George E. Stratemeyer, to provide the nation strategic air power second to none and "to insure a lasting peace."

In a prepared address before the 48th encampment of the Veterans of Foreign Wars—now in its second day—the military declared:

"We must, as soon as possible, have a regular air force ready for battle, comprised of 10,000 up-to-the-minute aircraft and 400,000 trained men to adequately man, equip and administer a seventy group program."

"We must also have a strong air reserve and air national guard, highly trained and equipped with reasonably modern aircraft to augment our regular striking force."

"Second Best" Not Good

Calling a "second best air force like a second best pork hand—you're better off without it," the general listed these other items he considered necessary to national defense:

1. "A healthy aircraft industry instead of the withered vine now producing less than its 1939 pre-war output."

2. A vigorous program of aeronautical research and development.

3. A "superlative" civil aviation system.

4. A set of blueprints governing industrial planning and mobilization for any emergency "and against any attempt to catch us off guard with a worse Pearl Harbor."

5. Heavy appropriations for air power.

6. Popular support of air force recruiting and universal military training.

Church Burned In 1890

Mt. Joy Lutheran church originally was a part of the Taneytown parish but on July 22, 1851, the Rev. Solomon Sentman, pastor of the Lutheran church, Taneytown, met with a group of Mt. Joy Lutherans at the grounds now owned by the church to plan the formation of a congregation. A committee was appointed to canvass the community for subscriptions and members. With 40 persons expressing a desire to join, a constitution was adopted in August of that year and an organization affected August 23. On September 7, the first election of church officers was held in Green Bush school house and on April 27, 1852, the cornerstone for the new brick church was laid. The edifice was dedicated October 24 of that year. Eighty persons received Communion at the first Communion service November 21. In the early years, the pastors were paid $100 a year. Ground for the church was donated by Jacob Maring. The congregation grew and became self-supporting, severing its connection with the Taneytown church March 15, 1878.

On March 4, 1890, the church was destroyed by fire that was blamed on a defective flue. The present church structure was built in the same year and was dedicated November 30, 1890. The congregation attained its largest membership in 1898 and 1899 when there were about 500 confirmed members. The present membership included 275 baptized, 210 confirmed and 160 communing members.

In its 95 years the congregation has produced nine men for the ministry, one former member is a deaconess and seven other members of the church become ministers' wives.

GREEK LEADERS AGREE TO FORM GREEK CABINET

By L. S. CHAKALES

Athens, Sept. 5 (AP)—Political leaders were reported reliably today to have agreed upon formation of a broadened cabinet such as United States diplomats have urged for Greece.

Generally dependable informants said last night the agreement, between the Populist (Royalist) and the opposition Liberal parties, provided that:

Themistokles Sophoulis, 86-year-old Liberal leader, would become premier.

Constantin Tsaldaris, Populist leader and present premier, would direct an inner cabinet group—the ministers of War, public order and justice—having to do with the fight on Communist-led, anti-government guerrillas.

Delay Confidence Vote

Sophoulis had demanded the premiership for himself and the ministers of public order, war and justice for other liberals. Tsaldaris had opposed these demands.

Their reported compromise followed parliament's postponement of a vote of confidence on Tsaldaris' one-party rightist government, formed a week ago yesterday.

This vote, set for last night, on Sophoulis' motion was put off until tomorrow. Tsaldaris' cabinet had faced defeat in the test. His Populists have only 141 of parliament's 354 seats, and even with the presumed support of Gen. Napoleon Zervas' 25 Nationalists, could not have mustered a majority. Sophoulis' Liberals hold 48 seats.

Tsaldaris had set his cabinet up, at the request of King Paul I, six days after the collapse of the coalition government under Populist Demetrios Maximos, from which Sophoulis' Liberals were excluded.

TRUMAN TALKS AT RIO TODAY

Rio De Janeiro, Sept. 5 (AP)—President Truman told the Brazilian Congress today he is confident that "Brazil and the United States will be faithful to a great trust on which depend the lives and liberty of so many millions of disillusioned and discouraged people."

Mr. Truman called attention to the fact that the two largest nations of the western hemisphere "have been spared the wanton destruction and dislocation" brought about by war.

"We are in a period in which Brazil and the United States must continue to cooperate with their sister nations of the western hemisphere in the development of a strong and concerted force for the good of mankind," he said.

The speech, upon which the president has spent the better part of the last two days, was his second formal address on Brazilian soil. He addressed the closing session of the inter-American hemisphere defense conference at Quitandinha Tuesday.

Asserting the "problems of peace still lie ahead of us, and are more difficult than we could have anticipated," Mr. Truman proclaimed anew the United States' determination that the United Nations must be made to succeed despite the difficulties that have so far beset its development.

made I am sure that many parents will be most grateful," writes one mother.

Children do not realize the danger of crossing at street intersections. There are a number of such crossings, perhaps too many to be policed or patrolled, but the more dangerous intersections, where traffic is heaviest, should be guarded for the protection of these little tots. Perhaps pedestrians could render some assistance to the youngsters if they happen to be near when the children attempt to cross streets.

Pennsylvania will join other states in the union in a nationwide recruiting campaign to bolster the ranks of the National Guard. Gettysburg's own guard troop will actively participate in the drive from September 16 to November 16. President Truman has proclaimed September 16 as National Guard Day.

Local civilians can help, too, by cooperating with the local Troop in its effort to increase its strength during the campaign.

Pennsylvania is seeking 5,350 more guardsmen. Nationally, the goal is 88,888.

MAROONS' GRID SQUAD NOW HAS 40 CANDIDATES

Gettysburg high school's football squad now totals 40 candidates as a result of eight new candidates who reported within the last few days.

One of the new candidates is Billy Bushman, erstwhile student manager of the squad. When the coaches learned of his ability as a passer they prevailed upon him to seek a regular berth and he is now attired in full grid regalia.

Another of the new candidates is Davey Blocher, substitute back of former years. Blocher, one of the fastest men on the squad, could be one of the surprises of the year as he has great potentialities.

Among the first of the new boys who have transferred here from the closed Fairfield high school is George Seiferd, a scrappy youngster who needs only experience.

Clarence Anzenberger, a rugged lad who served in the navy, is among the new hopefuls and may prove to be a big help on the squad.

Rounding out the list of new candidates are Robert Steinberger, Harold Miller, Harold Mellas and Richard Wentz, all of whom may develop into capable performers if they can overcome their late reporting for drills.

Student managers for the team since the loss of Bushman now include Bob Krick, Kenny Deardorff and Jay Shultz.

Stiff drills are scheduled for the Maroons for the next few days in preparation for the season's opener here next Friday evening with Delone Catholic high.

Peruvian Bank Clerk Swims The Channel

Dover, England, Sept. 5 (AP)—A swarthy, 35-year-old Peruvian bank clerk, Daniel Carpio, became the first South American to swim the English channel after whipping the treacherous tides in a 14-hour and 46-minute effort.

His time was considerably short of the record of 10 hours and 45 minutes set by Venceslas Spack of Bohemia in 1926, but high waves and a three-knot current forced him to follow a route 42 miles long to cross the 10-mile-wide straits.

Nearing his goal, Carpio revealed later, he almost gave up the attempt until he stripped off his watery goggles and saw the white cliffs of Dover gleaming in the moonlight.

With the goal so near, he speeded the strokes of his powerful crawl until he eased himself onto tiny Shakespeare beach beneath the cliffs shortly after midnight. He had slipped his lanolin-greased body into the waters at Cape Griz Nez, France at 1:56 p. m. (EST) Thursday.

Retired Oilman And Wife Are Wounded

Oil City, Pa., Sept. 5 (AP)—Samuel Y. Ramage, Jr., was reported in "critical" condition and his wife in "serious" condition today at Oil City hospital where they are being treated for gunshot wounds in the head. The socially prominent victims were taken to the hospital after the shooting occurred at their home yesterday.

Ramage, aged about 65, has been retired for years. His wife is about 55 years old.

Captain Ira Joslin of the Oil City police department, said he believed Ramage shot his wife in her bedroom, went back to his room and fired a bullet in his head. Frightened servants rushed from the house and waited outside for a physician they had called.

Ramage is the son of the late S. Y. Ramage, pioneer oil man and banker who supported the Republican party actively during his life but never sought office. The victim's son, Samuel Y. Ramage III, served as secretary of public assistance in the cabinet of former Gov. Edward Martin.

Use of the rose ornament on a shield was a privilege granted to their greatest warriors by the Roman emperors.

VIC LOMBARDI GETS ANOTHER WIN FOR BUMS

By JACK HAND
(AP Sports Writer)

Little Vic Lombardi, the fellow who couldn't win a ball game in early season, is the most consistent Dodger pitcher of the moment—especially when the Giants are around.

Over a three-year span, the pint-sized lefthander has lost only once to the New Yorkers in 12 starts. They have contributed 11 of his 34 major league victories.

Since the All-Star game, Lombardi has copped nine and dropped two, including a pair of wins over the St. Louis Cardinals. He has a five-game string working for him as he guns for a starting assignment in the World Series—if the Brooks get there.

Lombardi's latest effort, a five-hit 2-0 job on the New York club last night in the Polo Grounds before 49,203 customers, has given the Dodger Series another boost. As of the moment they are 6½ games in front of the Cards, who were rained out in Chicago.

Reese Returns
Andy Hansen, the Giants' latest pitching hope, pitched good enough to win in most cases but once again he went down in defeat. Jackie Robinson's first-inning double, followed by the first of three singles by Pete Reiser and a force play gave Brooklyn its first run. Pee Wee Reese, back in the lineup for the first time since August 23 when he was spiked, homered in the seventh, his 11th home run.

St. Louis' rained out game in Chicago was rescheduled for September 26, originally an open date for both clubs.

Boston continued to drive toward second place by outslugging the Phillies, 6-5, after spotting them five runs in the first three innings. A sparkling one-handed catch by Harry Walker of Earl Torgeson's long drive with the bases loaded wasn't enough to save the Phils as St. Johnson chalked up a decision over Al Jurisich in relief.

Pirates Bow
Another big inning by Cincinnati helped sink Pittsburgh a little deeper in the National League cellar via a 7-5 setback. The Reds scored six times in the third inning, driving Mel Queen from the hill.

Bill Johnson's error contributed to the Washington Senators' 5-4 night game edge over the New York Yankees. Johnson bobbled Ed Yost's pop fly in the seventh. Buddy Lewis sacrificed Yost to second. Stan Spence's single to center scored Yost with the tie-breaking run. Joe Page, a daily bullpen visitor, suffered his seventh loss due to Johnson's muff.

Jeff Heath and Fred Sanford were the whole story in St. Louis' 2-1 edge over Detroit. Heath hit his 25th homer after Johnny Berardino walked in the first inning and Sanford set down the Tigers with five singles to hand Freddie Hutchinson his 10th loss. Hutchinson drove in Detroit's only run with his second single of the game in the ninth.

Chicago came up with two in the tenth to top Cleveland, 4-2, in another night game after Hank Ruskowski had tied the score in the last of the ninth with a pinch hit homer for the Tribe. Ed Lopat went all the way for his 14th success, defeating Bob Lemon. Two singles and a double by Ralph Hodgins proved decisive in the tenth.

Boston and Philadelphia were not scheduled.

Harrisburg Beats York Roses 7 To 2

(By The Associated Press)
The Harrisburg Senators defeated the York Roses, 7 to 2, last night to extend their hold on fourth spot in the Interstate league to two full games.

Trenton already has clinched the league pennant and Wilmington and Allentown seemed assured of the number two and three positions.

In winning, Harrisburg climbed to within two games of Allentown which lost two to Trenton, 7 to 4, and 6 to 1. In other games Sunbury took two from Hagerstown, 3 to 0 and 10 to 6, and Wilmington defeated Lancaster, 5 to 3.

Eastern League

(By The Associated Press)
Young Jimmy Walsh, Albany Senator righthander, is willing to pitch before his hometown fans of Dunmore, Pa., any night in the week.

A delegation from Dunmore honored him at Scranton last night and Jimmy promptly beat the Scranton Miners, 6 to 1, for his seventh straight win. The victory clinched second place in the Eastern league for the Senators.

Meanwhile, the Wilkes-Barre Barons retained a half-game edge for third over Scranton, when they were shutout, 3-0, by Harry McPherson of the Hartford Chiefs.

The champion Utica Blue Sox turned back the Williamsport Tigers, 5-2, and the Binghamton Triplets staved off the bid of the Elmira Pioneers to emerge from the cellar by trouncing the tailenders, 9-6.

Four Teams Stay In Amateur Champ Race

Harrisburg, Sept. 5 (AP)—Four undefeated teams remained in the running for the All-American Amateur Baseball championship today as the annual tournament moved into the third round with the rivals pitted against each other in feature attractions.

The defending champions from Spring Grove, Md., had little trouble making it two straight in yesterday's second round, turning back Zanesville, Ohio, 10 to 7; Elkton, another Maryland entry, jolted Bessemer, Ala., 8 to 6; and New York's Kay Veterans moved ahead with a bye.

The winner's bracket was completed last night when the Heurich Brewers of Washington, D. C., came from behind to nose out Oakland of Pittsburgh, 6 to 5, after trailing at one time by a margin of 4 to 0.

Auto Night Races Next Wednesday

Williams Grove, Pa., Sept. 5 — Fresh from two feature victories over the Labor Day week-end, Lee Wallard, of Schenectady, N. Y., now driving out of Lebanon, Pa., has turned in his entry for the second annual George Robson Memorial race next Wednesday night, September 10, on Roy Richwine's half-mile Williams Grove Speedway.

Mark Light, the Flying Dutchman from Lebanon, is among the other speed aces to turn in his entry for the AAA big car auto races, the second since the installation of the new 300,000 watt lighting system has been installed.

About 8,200,000 people in the United States are employed in the motor vehicle industry and its auxiliary services.

LEGIIONNAIRES FACE FAIRFIELD THIS SATURDAY

Most important of the Adams County Baseball league games scheduled to be played Saturday will be staged at New Oxford, Orrtanna and Hanover.

The league-leading New Oxford outfit will be host to Bendersville, first half champs. Bendersville is in the cellar of the second half race as the result of winning but one of nine games. New Oxford holds first place by a half-game margin over Orrtanna.

Littlestown, tied with Fairfield for fourth place, battles the second-place Orrtanna nine at Orrtanna. Fairfield will entertain the Gettysburg aggregation at Fairfield. Originally the game was scheduled for Gettysburg but was transferred to Fairfield because of the football drills being held on the high school field.

The third-place Arendtsville nine will meet Hanover on the latter's field.

In the remaining game McSherrystown will play at Emmitsburg. Playoffs of postponements in the Penn-Maryland league listed for Sunday include McSherrystown at Middleburg, and Littlestown at Wakefield.

Chambersburg Water Line Is Severed

Chambersburg, Pa., Sept. 5 (AP)—Repair crews were working at top speed today to restore Chambersburg's water supply, cut off yesterday when a road construction blast severed the main water line.

The line, leading in from the Caledonia water shed, was ruptured by a dynamite explosion on the Lincoln highway, said J. H. Mowrey, borough manager of public utilities.

An emergency pump was set up to siphon water from nearby Conococheague creek which restored pressure to 30 pounds, Mowrey said. He added that the borough's second water line has been out of service of several weeks during a relocation operation to meet a new grade highway.

KILLED BY CAR

San Francisco, Sept. 5 (AP)—Six-year-old John Fleishman heard fire engines approaching Tuesday night, rushed into the street and was fatally injured by a passing taxicab. Police termed the death "an unavoidable accident." The fire engines were answering a false alarm.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, Jr.

New York, Sept. 5 (AP)—The other day Ted (barefoot boy) Schroeder, who may have been bidding farewell to big time tennis in that stirring Davis cup tussle with Dinny Pails, pointed out that there aren't very many good youngsters coming along to replace him and Jake Kramer on the Davis cup team.

"When we speak of 'kids' we don't mean the same thing as you do," Ted explained. "I don't mean Tom Brown, who is 26, or Bob Falkenberg, who is 21. . . I'm thinking of a few years ago when a half dozen of the ranking juniors also were in the first ten in the California senior rankings. . . There's Herbie Flam, but I'm afraid he will be restricted by his style. . . From here, it doesn't look too tough for the next year or two with Brown, probably Gar Mulloy, Falkenberg, Eddie Moylan, Vic Seixas and Jim Brink still around. By that time, maybe Buddy Behrens, Hugh Stewart, Dick Mouldous, Al Hetzek, Tony Trabert, Gil Bogley, Jerry De Wits and Pancho Gonzales will be ready for international play. . . Of course, only three of these youngsters are Californians. Maybe that's what Schroeder was talking about.

DISCOVERY
Scop Latimer, the Greenville, S. C., sage, reports: "After 37 years of sport writing I found what I've been looking for—a grandfather-grandson battery in baseball. Addison Bostain, 60, is the pitcher and his 17-year-old grandson, Tyler Robinson, Jr., is catcher of the Chapin, S. C., team of the Dutch Fork semi-pro league. Both pretty good, too, but grandad Bostain wants too much to sign a major league contract. He pitches a full nine-inning game twice a week—and wins. . . Wonder if Scop can't locate a grandson to complete a sports writing battery with the old granddad.

SPORTS-PURRI
Ohio State's football team likely will be charged with double dealing this fall. Coach Wes Fesler has two of the best backfield in the business in Ollie Cline, second only to Doc Blanchard in 1945, and Joe Whisler and plans to alternate them. . . Bill Lienthal, Villanova tackle, spent the summer in Georgia learning the cotton business and Coach Jordan Oliver hopes he also learned a few things about line play from "those Pennsylvania boys playing for Wally Butts."

Urges Eisenhower For Vice President
Washington, Sept. 5 (AP)—General Eisenhower was proposed today for the Democratic vice-presidential nomination by Rep. Smathers (D-Fla.).

The wartime supreme commander has been proposed by several leading Republicans as a possible presidential or vice-presidential nominee of that party.

Smathers, who said he thought President Truman and General Eisenhower "would make a wonderful ticket," told a reporter that the general himself has said he has no party affiliation.

"His expressed views, conduct and personality are more in harmony with Democratic principles than with those of the Republican party," the young, former Marine major said.

"Eisenhower," Smathers added, "is the product of a Democratic administration. The late President Roosevelt jumped him over 34 other generals and won his designation as supreme commander."

Man Held In Death Of Young Woman
Pittsburgh, Sept. 5 (AP)—District Attorney Artemas C. Leslie reported today state police at Greensburg were detaining a man for questioning in the slaying of a young woman whose nude body bearing a bullet wound in the head was found on the wooded bank of a lonely ravine.

Leslie gave no other details other than that he expected state police to bring the man to Pittsburgh sometime today for further grilling in the death of Julia Ann Pesko, 22, of McKeesport.

Miss Pesko's body was found Monday along McClintock road in an isolated section of Versailles township. Early investigations were hampered by mistaken identification of the victim as Betty Jane Yocobet, 14, of Port Vue, still missing after 13 days.

Relatives of Miss Yocobet were so positive in their identification of the corpse that police were satisfied she was the victim until Miss Pesko's relatives also claimed the body. Identification of personal jewelry and examination of dental structures positively established the victim as Miss Pesko.

LEHIGH MENTOR SAYS TEAM WILL BE TOUGH FOE

Bethlehem, Pa., Sept. 5 (AP)—Lehigh University may not field a 1947 football powerhouse but Coach Bill Leckonby insists his gridders "won't be a soft touch" for the opposition.

"I don't expect my boys to win 'em all," Leckonby observed as he put 45 squad candidates through a pre-season drill, "but watch out for Lehigh. We could turn up with a surprise."

On the basis of past performance and current team personnel, Leckonby's "iffy" prediction possibly can be regarded as wishful thinking since the engineers blew mostly cold last year, winning but two of eight contests.

Leckonby, at 29 one of the youngest college grid mentors in the country and starting his second season as Lehigh's head coach, figures the 17 letter winners from the 1946 squad bolstered by 28 newcomers "make our prospects look good."

Only Five Seniors
Of the 45 candidates only five are seniors. Thirty-one sophomores and nine juniors complete the squad and Leckonby optimistically looks to 1948 "when we should be really able to field a strong team."

The 1947 Lehigh team shapes up this way: *

Just Folks

The Poet of the People
By EDGAR A. GUEST

DEATH OF A DOG

He was gentle; he was true.
He was all a dog could be.
Though he nothing meant to you,
He meant welcome glad to me.
Comes the word that he has gone.
Now I'm lonelier than before.
As the days keep coming on,
I shall miss him at the door.

Just a spaniel, but a friend
That was never known to fail.
Never day came to an end
But I saw his wagging tail.
At my chair he used to sit,
Sharing bread with me and meat.
Now with sorrow I admit
I shall miss him when I eat.

From the doctor comes the word,
"Faithful Tony died today!"
And the heart of me is stirred,
And there's little I can say.
For there never dawned a day
But a fuss o'er he'd make,
And this tribute now I pay:
I shall miss him when I wake.

Today's Talk

READERSHIP BOND

Little do we realize the bond that is created and cemented between the writer of a book or poem and ourselves. Unconsciously we may even take upon ourselves the personality of that writer, for he stamps himself upon his work, as we all do.

I never read a book but what I become speculative as to the author. What does he look like? How old is he? How tall? Where was he born? What are his hobbies and interests? What sports does he like? And what is his home life? These, and dozens of other questions arise in the mind as we read a book or poem.

There is a readership bond between every author that we read and learn to admire. And often, with the years, this bond is increased. I have a friend who so admired the writings of Kipling that he has devoted a large part of his outside hours to the collecting of everything that Kipling wrote, and of things written about Kipling. He has become an authority on this famous writer. There is an inseparable bond between them.

I could say as well about scores of writers of books and poetry. I feel that I know them, though never having met most of them—and many of them long dead before I ever heard of them, but still they live, when read and appreciated. And I salute many a living writer whom I shall never meet, but with whom I shall have silent and uplifting communion.

The happy thing about this readership bond is that it can be made stronger and stronger as the years recede, and richer, too. And another thing that any readership bond may do is to lead to another bond with an author whose kinship is pronounced. After all, however, are not all authors bound together in a silent kinship? And do they not ask us, the readers, to join in that kinship? I believe that they do, or else there would be little to inspire them to express themselves, or to hope for any response to their creative efforts.

It is this readership bond that gives to our daily newspapers, our magazines, and various class publications. No publication could long exist without it. From it all evolves the silent bond of opinion—that shapes the lives of us all!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "All to Nature."

ODD SUMMER WEATHER WAS HARD ON CROPS

By MAX HALL

Washington, Sept. 5 (AP)—Most of this country had an awful August, one of the hottest on record.

People and animals took a beating. So did corn and cotton. Many factories shut down. Thus the weather once more influenced economics.

The Weather Bureau has not yet collected the full temperature picture for August. But some reports are arriving. Illinois reported the hottest August on record. So did Columbus, Ohio.

Other states and cities throughout the vast middle of America may soon report they had a record-breaking August. The east and south had it bad, too. The west coast didn't suffer as much.

Started Wet and Cold
This whole summer was unusual in most of the country, including the corn and wheat regions. It started out wet and cold, and ended up dry and scorching.

There had been a cold, rainy spring, and the cold and rain continued into June. Midwestern rivers overflowed—the Mississippi, the Missouri, the Des Moines, Raccoon, Platte, Grand, Blue. They tore millions of dollars worth of soil out of the farmland and washed it to the sea.

In July the rains slackened. The weather got warmer but it was still cooler than normal in the Midwest. Then came August. It was like walking into a furnace room. Huge areas forgot how rain felt. In Kansas City, Missouri, there were 27 days in August when the mercury went over 90. There were 11 days when it was 100 or over.

Hot in Maine, Too
On August 9, it was 113 in Pierre, South Dakota. This was one of the highest readings of the summer, but it did not approach the United States record of 134 degrees, made in Death Valley, California, in July, 1913.

August was hot even in Maine. On August 13, Bangor had 95 degrees. The same day, Boston reeled in 99-degree heat. By the end of the month, Maine was having frost. But its cold weather didn't approach the coldest August day ever recorded in the United States—five degrees above zero in Montana in August, 1910.

Hard On Corn
The unusual summer was especially damaging to the corn crop because it hit the corn a one-two punch:

1. The rains and floods of June washed out some of the corn, and made for shallow roots (with water standing all around, the roots didn't need to go deep to get moisture).

2. The heat and drought of August seared the corn at the critical "pollination" stage, when it was "tasseling" and "silking" and needed water desperately.

World Flyers On Way To Rome Today

Paris, Sept. 5 (AP)—George W. Truman, 39, of Los Angeles and Clifford V. Evans, 26, of Washington, resuming a "round-the-world flight in two light (Cub) planes, took off for Rome at 10:50 a. m. (5:30 a. m., eastern standard time) today.

They said they would make a refueling stop at Marseille and hoped to reach the Italian capital at 6:30 p. m. (1:30 p. m., eastern standard time).

During a two-day stopover here, the fliers told the Aero club of France that they were considering asking permission to land on a United States aircraft carrier if conditions in the North Pacific, between the northern Japanese island of Hokkaido and the Aleutians, made such a move advisable.

The two began their leisurely journey August 9 at Teterboro, N. J. They flew to Paris from Amsterdam. Upon arrival, they said they intended to cut down their stopover time in the hope of making the Hokkaido-to-Aleutians crossing before September 20.

Red Rose Pays Rent On Old Penn Deed

West Grove, Pa., Sept. 5 (AP)—One Red Rose exchanged hands today in a ceremony that carried out the rental provisions of a deed signed by William Penn 216 years ago.

Fifteen-year-old Elizabeth B. Graves turned the blossom over to Amy Penn-Gaskell Hall, 2nd, a tenth direct descendant of the founder of Pennsylvania, as a token payment for use of the Red Rose Inn, standing on property originally granted to Penn by King Charles of England.

Such rose rentals, dating back to early Quaker days, are paid in several other Pennsylvania communities every year, usually involving church-held lands. The custom was originated by landed nobles in granting favors to individuals and church groups.

air races being held in Cleveland this week.

Miss Elizabeth Phelps has left for Toronto, Canada, after spending the summer months with Mrs. Henry W. Phelps, Lincoln avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bachman have returned from a trip to Prince Edward Island and have moved into their new home at 325 North Stratton street.

Note that the discussion is on wealth which means possession of money or goods beyond the need one has for them. It involves acquiring, using, and sharing. It implies a stewardship that the Lord can approve.

And since "man looketh on the outward appearance but the Lord looketh on the heart" what to do with wealth concerns both the man who has and the man who has not. A case of graft was under discussion in on informal group and condemned when one spoke up shamelessly: "I don't blame those fellows a bit, I'd do the same." A principle for action must be established that will hold whether you have riches or not. Generally the people whom Jesus addressed were not of the wealthy class but he frequently warned them against covetousness and envy.

Use and Abuse
It is assumed that one will use what he has for his own needs, for his family and dependents. But how much does one need? A friend writes that they dined at a hotel where some people spend $200 a day just to live. Is that a need or plain extravagance? Whole families live on that amount for a month and can be more contented. The way you live and use your means depends on a sound philosophy that is Christian. One man keeps his living expenses down so that he may give liberally to the community chest, missions, his church, the hospital. Two men are equally fond of swimming pools. The one has a private pool for himself and friends; the other builds one for the community, and takes delight in watching the splashing youngsters.

The vulgar parade of riches in our good land, especially in this time of world need, does not help to win the respect we otherwise deserve. There is too much accumulation of wealth and too much decay of men. Goldsmith would say. To those whose manhood is not equal to their wealth, Jesus says, "sell that thou hast and distribute to the poor."

Hoarding
Proverbs has a direct message for such that occurs right now. "He that withholdeth corn, the people shall curse him; but blessing shall be upon the head of him that sows seed."

CIO LEADERS DELAY ACTION

Pittsburgh, Sept. 5 (AP)—Ranking CIO leaders will wait until their October 13 convention at Boston before taking any action to comply with the Taft-Hartley labor law requirement that union officials file non-communist affidavits prior to September 25.

That flat announcement was contained in a bitterly-worded statement issued by the CIO executive board here yesterday after a conference with CIO-President Philip Murray.

Immediate effect of the union leaders' decision was not determined but Robert N. Denham, general counsel of the NLRB, has indicated that unless affidavits are filed by all the nation's labor leaders before the deadline nearly 15,000,000 workers will be denied use of the NLRB.

Murray did not give any elaboration of the board's decision but at a news conference after the meeting said that the CIO's steelworkers union has held 10 elections independent of the NLRB in the last two weeks.

Until this announcement both the CIO and the AFL had kept the NLRB in the dark as to whether the government agency could expect to do a rushing business under terms of the Taft-Hartley law or none at all.

YORK FAIR NEXT WEEK

With far more than the customary wealth of entertainment, industrial and agricultural exhibits, the great York Interstate Fair will open its 95th Annual Exposition at York next Tuesday, September 9th, and continue thru day and night to Saturday, September 13th.

Located in the heart of an extensive agricultural and industrial manufacturing area, the York Interstate Fair has always stimulated farm production as well as served as a medium to show industrial products. There will be more and better exhibits than ever before. All space is completely sold out.

GREAT ENTERTAINMENT
This year it seems that fair management has outdone itself in securing unusual, outstanding, nationally-known attractions. The list of daily features reads like an all-star cast. "National Jubilee," Frank Wirth's glamorous, musical revue with many Broadway stars and headliners from around the world will appear each night on the enlarged stage in front of the grandstand. Heading the list of stars will be Tessa Gardella, the original "Aunt Jemima" of radio and fame, who will also be remembered for her role in the original Broadway production of "Showboat."

GIANT BALLOON PARADE
On Tuesday, "Children's Day," the management has gone to great expense to bring the famous "Macy's of New York" Giant Balloon Parade, which will make two parades around the track with two hundred funny clowns to keep the giant animals and characters in line. A real rubber zoo, 50 giant balloons of animals and characters... a real treat for the kiddies!

HEAR SENATOR CLAGHORN
Jot these down; you can't afford to miss them. Following the usual custom, the York Fair brings you the "Funniest Man in the World" in person, Kenny Delmar as Senator Claghorn on Wednesday afternoon and night. On Friday afternoon and night there will be none other than Tex Beneke and the Glenn Miller Orchestra of 35 outstanding musicians and entertainers. And, on Saturday afternoon and night, the original granddaddy of all thrill shows, B. Ward Beam with his World Champion Daredevils, 15 great auto and motorcycle thrillers in one great combined show.

There will be four days of harness and running races for liberal purses on one of the finest half mile tracks in the country. Good, all-weather roads, ample parking space for all, your choice of good, clean restaurants, sanitary toilets and all the comforts of home, who will also be remembered for her role in the original Broadway production of "Showboat."

MORE & BETTER EXHIBITS.
Plan now to attend this greatest of all fairs in the east. It comes only once a year, and the York Interstate Fair is noted for its fine entertainment, exhibits, and hospitality. Reserve your Grandstand Seats early and avoid disappointment.—Adv.

German Minister-President Of Russian Held Province Reported 'Missing'

VANISHES FROM WEIMAR MONDAY REPORT STATES

Berlin, Sept. 5 (AP)—A spokesman here for the communist-dominated Socialist Unity Party (SED) confirmed today a newspaper report that Dr. Rudolf Paul, German minister-president of the Russian-occupied province of Thuringia, was missing.

He said Paul's whereabouts were "undetermined," but he added that the newspaper story "must be taken with a grain of salt, since the minister-president can not answer."

The paper, the British-licensed Telegraf, said today that Dr. Paul had vanished Monday from Weimar, provincial capital. It reported that no trace of him had been found in a search ordered by Deputy Minister President Werner Eggert, head of provincial police.

The Thuringian government has issued no statement on Paul's disappearance. An informant in the government told the Associated Press by telephone, "nothing is known here except that he isn't here."

Paul's wife, his chief interpreter and two police officers also are missing, the paper said. Paul's automobile was last reported seen on the Autobahn near Beitz, headed for Berlin, while another automobile in which his wife was said to have been riding was found Tuesday night near the Potsdam railway station in the Soviet zone, Telegraf continued.

"While the first version spread that Paul was the victim of an assassination, there is now no doubt that he fled," Telegraf said.

The newspaper said Paul appealed to Hermann Goering in 1935 to permit him to become a member of the Nazi party but was refused. When the Russians occupied Thuringia, they made him minister-president.

Young Woman Dies In Phila. Collision

Philadelphia, Sept. 5 (AP)—A young woman was killed and more than 20 other persons injured Thursday in a head-on collision of an automobile and a trackless trolley.

The dead girl was listed at the hospital of the Women's Medical college as Sylvia Vandergrift, about 23, employed as a secretary at the Container Corporation of America.

Joseph Fallon, 29, operator of the trolley, said he was making the bend in Ridge avenue, at Scott's Lane and was getting ready to slow down to let some passengers off when the collision occurred.

CRISIS WORSENS IN EUROPE; AID MORE URGENT

By DEWITT MACKENZIE (AP Foreign Affairs Analyst)

Ground for anxiety—though not surprising—is American Undersecretary of State Lovett's report in Washington that Europe's economic crisis is developing much faster than expected and that the United States may have to take some kind of emergency action before the end of the year.

Representative Hays, Arkansas Democrat, pinned the thing down more closely. He told reporters that in all probability it will be necessary for Congress to meet before January, "assuming that the Marshall plan will take shape by that time and that we will have something definite and substantial to work on."

Lovett attributes the speedy worsening of the situation to two main causes: (1) The effects of the British economic crisis have been very contagious, he believes. (2) Many countries have had to divert their resources from production to such non-productive purchases as foodstuffs. In this connection their troubles have been added to by such afflictions as floods and droughts. There also has been mismanagement.

It is true that one bad apple in the bin passes on its decay to others. It also is true that nature has played sorry pranks on the stricken continent. The grain crops in virtually all countries except Russia have been reduced by drought. The Soviet union has been favored by weather and has done well.

The over-all picture is a grim one. The three main supports of the pre-war European structure—Britain, France and Germany—are badly crippled. The smaller states, who used to depend so heavily on the patronage of the now wounded giants, are struggling along on their own, but there has been little or no coordination of effort among them. Each has been intent on hoing its own row.

One of the most dangerous aspects of the situation has been the continued impotence of Germany, due to the inability of the Big Four to reach an agreement which would permit of a peace treaty and economic recovery. Russia's refusal to

State College, Pa., Sept. 5 (P)—The mighty arm of education soon will be raised against the lowly cockroach and kindred household pests.

The course will be taught by Dr. Hubert W. Frings, associate professor of entomology and will be open to both men and women.

Pleads Guilty In Barrel Murder Case

Philadelphia, Sept. 5 (P)—Judges Harry S. McDevitt, Frank Smith and Joseph Sloane reserved judgment after William A. Wagner, Jr., 22-year-old taxicab starter, accused of the barrel murder of a 50-year-old woman, changed his plea to guilty when brought into court to stand trial.

The case had puzzled police for more than a month while they sought the identification of the victim, who was later identified as Margaret C. Dougherty.

Wagner told the three jurists, sitting en banc yesterday that he met the woman on a street, took her to his room and then forgot "what I did." The former sailor said he returned to the room two days later and found the body.

Wagner was identified by two small boys as the man who paid them to haul a barrel from his room to a dump.

INTER-AMERICAN SECURITY PACT CITED AS MODEL

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

Washington, Sept. 5 (P)—Secretary of State Marshall today held forth the new inter-American security pact as the outstanding postwar example of how nations can join together to promote world peace.

Marshall who will present the treaty to the United Nations assembly two weeks hence, and Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich.) hailed it in a radio broadcast last night as a pattern for the U. N. to follow in its quest for world wide security.

Throughout the talks of both men ran an implied criticism of Russia and the Soviet attitude toward international cooperation.

"It Can Be Done" Marshall declared that the results of the conference at Petropolis, Brazil, in which the treaty was drafted and signed "demonstrated, I think beyond doubt, that where nations are sincerely desirous of promoting the peace and well-being of the world it can be done."

He added that "it can be done without frustrating delays and without much of the confusing and disturbing propaganda that has attended our efforts of the past two years."

The secretary, who earlier this year spent eight futile weeks in Moscow trying to negotiate agreements on the future of Germany with Russia, Britain and France, returned Wednesday from the Petropolis meeting where the 19 American governments present drew up the new security treaty in three weeks.

Expect Senate Okay Vandenberg, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations committee, told his radio listeners he would present the pact to the Senate for ratification with "every confidence that it will deserve prompt and enthusiastic approval of its traditionally American ideals."

He called the treaty "sunlight in a dark world" and declared that "it is good for the United Nations."

Marshall repeatedly stressed the importance of the new arrangement to the United Nations, declaring that the treaty affords that organization "a significant example—an example, I feel, of which it is in great need at the present time."

UN Takes Turn At Arms Limitation

Lake Success, Sept. 5 (P) — The United Nations takes another turn at arms limitation today with virtually no progress in prospect.

The working committee of the U. N. commission on conventional armaments was called to meet at 3 p. m. (E.D.T.) for a renewed attempt to decide how best to approach the arms problem.

The committee has agreed on a plan of work but there still is no agreement on what next to do. Some of the small countries have complained that there does not appear to be any real move for cutting arms at this stage of the world's political game.

The question is certain to be considered in the forthcoming U. N. assembly, which will meet September 16, in Flushing Meadow Park, New York. The assembly will expect a report on progress made in the field of atomic control and arms limitation. Delegates generally are agreed there has been little progress in either direction this year.

ROAD BUILDING IN STATE FAR AHEAD OF '46

Washington, Sept. 5 (AP)—Pennsylvania now has under construction more than six times the number of miles of federal-aid highways that were completed during the 12 months ended last June 30, the public roads administration disclosed today.

The construction is part of a nation-wide $3,000,000,000 road building program whose aim is the improvement of existing federal-aid highways and the construction of new roads to meet postwar traffic demands.

Housing Affects Roads
The federal government's share in this share-the-cost program is $1,500,000,000, which was authorized in the federal aid highway act of 1944 to be spent in the first three postwar fiscal years.

Like so many other things, highway construction and improvement have been held by a shortage of materials, especially steel for bridges.

But, roads administration spokesmen say, the situation will improve as soon as the housing shortage eases—when steel, for example, which now is going into homes will become available in greater quantities for highway work.

Picture In State

Here's the picture for Pennsylvania:
Completed during the 12 month period between July 1, 1946 and June 30, 1947: 36.3 miles. Total cost, $5,484,313. Federal share of the cost—the state paid the other $2,818,906.

Under construction as of June 30, 1947: 224.3 miles. Total cost, $42,977,696. Federal share, $21,959,377. Plans for construction which were approved as of June 30: 69.9 miles. Total cost, $13,286,632. Federal share, $6,896,058.

Costs Vary Widely
Programmed as of June 30 but not definitely planned: 88.7 miles. Total cost, $40,466,154. Federal share, $21,575,977.

Comparisons of millages and costs sometimes are confusing. What must be remembered is that one mile of highway in a highly populated, built-up area might cost ten times that of a mile of highway in a country section.

The highway act of 1944 stipulates an annual authorization of $500,000,000 to be divided as follows: $225,000,000 for improvements of the regular federal-aid system; $125,000,000 for urban (town and city) sections of the system only, including expressways and distribution routes; and $150,000,000 for secondary, or farm-to-market, roads.

FOOD PRICES AT NEW HIGH, STILL SOARING

Chicago, Sept. 5 (AP)—The nation's principal commodity markets cast lengthening shadows over family household budgets today in a dizzy whirl of rising prices.

With most staple foods at high peak for the year and certain to go still higher, the consumer was advised to adjust to substitutes, such as spaghetti, and to shop around for cheaper cuts of meat. Only fresh fruits and vegetables were holding at steady prices. Some observers predicted that unless "consumer resistance" shows up in the market places eggs in New York will soar to $1 a dozen, butter and meat $1 a pound. Such grains as corn and oats sold in futures trading yesterday at new record high prices in the 99-year history of the Chicago board of trade.

Catastrophe In Corn
John Krey, chairman of the American meat institute, said "a major catastrophe is striking this country and a hungry world because of the drastic reduction in this year's corn production."

In anticipation of further advancing prices for the grain, one Chicago broker reported that wheat producers were withholding some of their 1947 crop from market channels.

The midwestern drought which sharply curtailed corn crop prospects was an important factor in meat prices but in virtually all other commodity exchanges the trend was sharply upward, including cocoa, sugar, hides, cotton, cottonseed oil and coffee. Some of these already were at record high quotations.

Butter was selling at 87 cents a pound retail in New York where Eugene Schulz, city market commissioner, predicted it would climb further because of short supplies. He said "only slight consumer resistance" against the high prices had appeared there.

100 YEARS OLD TODAY
Scranton, Pa., Sept. 5 (AP)—Charles Benjamin Capwell, who is 100 years old today, has an ambition that can't be realized for another year—he wants to cast "just one more vote" in a Presidential election.

Capwell, former foundry worker and farmer now living in nearby Factoryville, would not predict the probable Republican and Democratic candidates or say which party he would support.

The first commercial glue plant was built in Holland in 1690.

Trainmen's Strike Threatens Mills

Pittsburgh, Sept. 5 (AP)—A strike of 1,800 operating trainmen today threatened to shut down the huge Pittsburgh mills of the Carnegie-Illinois Steel Corp., employing 35,000 workers.

The Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen and the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers last night notified the union railroad, a U. S. Steel Corp. subsidiary, of the strike action in a dispute involving wage increases, vacations and pay differentials.

Carnegie-Illinois immediately banked 10 of its blast furnaces with indications that complete tie-up of the railroad would cause further curtailment.

TO TRY SERUM ON 3 HOPELESS CANCER CASES

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE
St. Louis, Sept. 5 (AP)—A New York scientist today said he planned to try the Russian "Kr Serum" for cancer on three hopeless human cases this fall, after getting some apparent cures in mice in preliminary tests.

But he emphatically stressed that there was not yet the slightest hope to believe that humans would react like the mice.

At the same time, another scientist reported no cures and only moderate effects at best from Kr in mice in his experiments over a period of two years.

The apparent recoveries in some mice were reported by William M. Malisoff, Ph.D. biochemist and research director of the Longevity Research Foundation, New York, to the Fourth International Cancer Research Congress.

Cautious Reports
Kr is named for its Russian developer, Nina Kluyeva and Gregori Roskin, who prepared it from organisms that cause a tropical disease, Chagas disease.

The Soviets have cautiously reported about 10 "more or less successful" recoveries from cancer among 60 persons treated with Kr injections, said Theodore H. Hauschke, Ph.D., microbiologist of the Institute for Cancer Research, Lankenau hospital, Philadelphia. It was Dr. Hauschke who reported the generally poor results with Kr preparations made at Philadelphia.

Dr. Malisoff said he has been making a Kr solution since last May, and "I intend using this method on three already-selected human cases about the end of October. The cases, of course, will be inoperable and in very advanced stages."

STATE PUSHING CATTLE TESTS

Meadville, Pa., Sept. 5 (AP)—The state today advanced plans to adopt a straight test-and-slaughter program for control of bangs disease in cattle. A Crawford County Pomona Grange meeting at Hydetown yesterday was told by Wesley G. Reitze, member of the county bangs disease control committee, that plan B, which has permitted a dairyman to keep his infected cattle provided they are vaccinated, will be eliminated effective September 15.

This leaves as the only state-approved program the test-and-slaughter method, under which tests are made at certain intervals and any cattle found to be infected are slaughtered.

Calfhood vaccination will become optional under the new state policy. It was obligatory under plan B, which the Department of Agriculture called a wartime emergency.

Reitze said state indemnities will be paid as farmers make the transition plan B to the test-and-slaughter program. Except for cattle vaccinated in maturity, indemnities will be paid on cattle lost.

Only 195 herds were operated under plan B in Crawford county last year, as compared with 4,453 under the test-and-slaughter program.

Club Arranges For Kindergarten Class

The Woman's Community club of Littlestown and vicinity has completed plans for a kindergarten class for the children of Littlestown. Miss Laurabelle Stoner, Hanover, who has been conducting classes in Hanover for the past four years, will be the teacher. She will enroll children from the ages of three and one-half to five years. The classes will be held Monday through Friday, at her home in Hanover. Taxi transportation will be provided.

Miss Stoner also is an instructor in music.

Those parents who are interested in having their children attend the classes may call Miss Stoner at Hanover 5254 or contact Mrs. Charles Weikert, president of the Woman's Community club. The place and time for the opening of the kindergarten will be announced later.

To Try Negro For Assaulting Woman

Pearl Harbor, Sept. 5 (AP)—A Negro enlisted man accused of assaulting a chief petty officer's wife after drinking with the woman and her husband will be tried by a navy court martial September 10.

The navy announced the trial would be held on Johnston island, tiny U. S. outpost 700 miles southwest of Honolulu, where the offense allegedly occurred July 17. The petty officer and his wife are white.

The Negro has been held at Pearl Harbor since late July. Names of the principals were withheld.

33 CANDIDATES RESPOND TO HS GRIDIRON CALL

With 33 candidates out for posts on the team, Littlestown high school hopes to make a good showing when it meets with other members of the "Little Four Conference" this fall for the school's first experience in football.

Coach Clayton L. Evans claims "we can safely say this year we have the best prospects in our history," as a joking way of pointing out that the school never had football teams before.

Among the candidates for the squad are Joseph Hall, Leon Gage, Jr., Ted Blair, Jack Mackley, Francis Gerrick, LeRoy Bish, Richard Little, Allen Shanbrook, Fred Snyder, Glenn Crouse, Everett Peeser, Robert Snyder, Robert King, Richard Mehning, Bradley Morlock, Hamilton Walker, Paul Bowers, Glenn Hankey, Harold Gerrick, Kenneth Rice, William Dutterer, Joseph Snyder, Clyde Good, Lee Kerns, Richard Boyd, Robert Harner, Robert Hall, Ralph Unger, Paul Kump, Richard Bixler, Clyde Bucher and Wilbur Sontz.

First Game Oct. 11

Dean Stover, athletic director of Littlestown, in announcing the schedule for the team, pointed out that three of the four teams in the Little Four conference, Littlestown, East Berlin and Dallastown, are either playing football for the first time this year, or are resuming after a lapse of some years. "As a result, we expect the schools to be pretty well matched, and we believe the results will be pretty close. The new loop should develop much interest among the students as well as providing an opportunity for those who wish to play football to participate in that sport."

The schedule for this fall starts October 11 when Littlestown will play East Berlin on the latter's gridiron. Saturday, October 18, Littlestown will be at New Freedom; Saturday, October 25, East Berlin will be at Littlestown; November 1, New Freedom will be at Littlestown; November 8, Littlestown will play at Dallastown and November 15, Dallastown will be at Littlestown.

Interesting News From Littlestown And Vicinity; Report From Council

HOOPERT GIRL RETURNS FROM HOSPITAL TODAY

Miss Johnda Hoopert, eight-year-old daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Grant E. Hoopert, who has been a patient at the Harrisburg City hospital contagious diseases annex, for the last two weeks, a victim of infantile paralysis, returned to the home of her parents today. They motored to Harrisburg to bring the child home. Her stay there was brightened with the reception of over 100 cards, and gifts of magazines and money. The case was a mild one, the first and only one in town, to date, this year and no paralysis developed throughout the illness.

The quarantine has also been lifted at the parsonage. Rev. Hoopert is pastor of Centenary Methodist church. The family had to forego their vacation as the illness occurred when they planned to leave town.

Labor Day visitors at the home of Rev. and Mrs. David S. Kammerer were Mr. and Mrs. John N. Garber of Littleton, Mr. Garber was formerly office manager of the Campbell Shoe Manufacturing company, when the plant was in operation here. Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Wolfe, son, Lloyd, and daughter, Louise, of Sunbury, also visited the Kammerers on Labor Day. The Wolfes were their former parishioners and came to Littlestown to be married shortly after Rev. Kammerer assumed his charge at St. Paul's Lutheran church.

Personal Items
Mrs. John D. Basehoar spent Tuesday with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Shelley, in Wormleysburg and also visited with Mrs. Noel McCord, in Harrisburg.

John Ellinger, Waynesboro, Va., is spending a week at the home of Mrs. H. M. Badders and family. Labor Day visitors at the same home were Mrs. Ira B. Yeakle and Jack Kerns of Baltimore. They were accompanied by Hamilton C. Walker, 3rd, who spent the past week with his grandmother, Mrs. Yeakle in Baltimore and at Ocean City.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Warner, and Mrs. Carrie Wine, of this place and Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Fuhrman, of Hanover, spent the week-end and Labor Day in Virginia. Among other points of interest, they visited Natural Bridge and Skyline Drive.

Miss Brenda Walker and Miss Emily Badders returned home after spending a week with their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Alexander, Waynesboro, Va. They were accompanied home by Mrs. Alexander, who is visiting this week at the home of her mother, Mrs. H. M. Badders.

NEW JUNIOR HIGH SYSTEM 'WORKS'

Littlestown's new Junior high school "is working out splendidly," Supervising Principal Paul E. King said today as the first week for the new school ended.

The Littlestown system now has 137 seventh and eighth grade students, 57 ninth grade youngsters, 58 tenth grade, 44 eleventh grade and 28 twelfth grade students. Joining Littlestown students in the Junior high school are students from Germany and Union townships.

Seventh and eighth graders are showing much interest in such things as shop work, physical education, agriculture and home economics which have been added to the curriculum under the Junior high school organization, King said.

Under the Junior high school plan, the seventh and eighth grades join the ninth, tenth, eleventh and twelfth grades in receiving their instruction in departmentalized fashion. Previously one teacher taught all subjects in the seventh and eighth grades. Now the same set-up as a high school is followed with one teacher instructing in social science, another in language, another in mathematics and the like.

Mr. and Mrs. William K. Ebaugh, son, William, and Miss Betty Coffman, spent the week-end and Labor Day with Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Riffe, at their cottage at Breezy Point, Md.

The annual Sunday school picnic sponsored by St. James Reformed church will be held Saturday. Suppers will be served from 4 to 8 o'clock. The band sponsored by the Ocker-Snyder Post No. 321, American Legion, will furnish the music.

CANNERIES HERE IN FULL SWING

Littlestown's canning establishments are in full swing at the present time in turning out thousands of cans of food products made from crops raised in general in the Littlestown section.

Cannery heads said that tomatoes this year seem to be in better condition than last when the blight struck heavily in the harvest season, but one cannery official added that he had been told by a number of growers that they plan to produce something other than tomatoes if the need for spraying and dusting continues.

A discussion of the canning situation with several canners in the Littlestown area today disclosed belief on the part of those canners at least that the general public, while willing to pay the highest prices for fancy canned materials, is hesitant to accept many of the old standbys of years gone by.

"People are buying with their eyes instead of their heads," one cannery said. "A few years ago, for example, we threw number two screen peas away. Now that is what the general public wants. There is no difference in food value or taste. The value is simply in looks. And as a result the smaller peas are selling at a higher price than the best larger peas. Another example is the desire of customers for whole tomatoes. There is no more food value in whole tomatoes than there is in

Francis J. Will, commander of the post, was in charge of the meeting. The post members regret to announce that there will be no family picnic as planned for this year, due to the fact that no suitable accommodations are obtainable.

The new by-laws and constitution of the post, which were drawn up by a committee composed of Ralph Ruggles, Jr. and Ernest Sentz, Jr., were accepted by the post. A copy of these by-laws was sent to each member during the past week, prior to the voting Thursday night.

One candidate, Fred B. Sheely, was accepted into membership.

An estimated $9-billion was spent for American vacations in 1946.
